

Louisiana State Society — Spring 2010

Upcoming Events

French Quarter Party: Pianos and Hurricanes

Saturday, March 27, 2010 at the American Legion Hall (224 D Street, SE) from 8 p.m.-11 p.m.

This party will feature live piano music, hurricanes, beer, wine, and souvenir Pat O'Brien's glasses.

A limited number of tickets are available on our website, and must be purchased in advance. Tickets are $20 for members and $35 for guests.

Crawfish Boil on the National Mall

On May 8, 2010, we will host our annual crawfish boil. To add to the excitement, for the first-time ever this party will be held on the National Mall. We will have thousands of pounds of Louisiana crawfish, jambalaya, and plenty of beer and other drinks.

Tickets will go on sale soon so watch for an email with more details.

Other Louisiana-related events in D.C.:

March 18: New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival and Foundation present "Fans of the Fest" with New Orleans pianist Henry Butler at Madam's Organ's Blues Bar (2461 18th St. NW) from 6 to 9 p.m. For more information, please visit: <http://www.jazzandheritage.org/detail?cat=e&id=1000241>

March 31: Screening of Louisiana Director Pat Mire's film, Mon Cher Camarade, at 7 p.m. at the American History Museum. This film is the never before told story of hundreds of French-Louisiana Cajuns who served as interpreters in WWII in Europe.
